Division of Criminal Justice Academy

The Division of Criminal Justice Academy has been a Police Training Commission approved academy since 1980. Established originally to conduct the Basic Course for Investigators, the Division of Criminal Justice Academy has expanded its curriculum to include other PTC approved courses, such as the revised Modified Basic Course for Investigators, Methods of Instruction Course, and arson investigation courses. In addition, the Academy conducts a wide variety of specialty and management development courses not generally available at other police academies. The Academy also provides continuing education to state investigators and deputy attorneys general from the Division of Criminal Justice.

Course Registration

To register for a course, submit a copy of the registration form located at the end of the course catalog. To assist in planning course enrollment and providing confirmation of enrollment, when possible, registrations should be submitted at least 30 days prior to the course start date. For tuition courses, please submit an agency check or completed payment voucher with the registration or upon confirmation of course enrollment. (All payments should be made payable to the Division of Criminal Justice Academy, P.O. Box 085, Trenton, New Jersey 08625.) Additional courses will be added throughout the year and will be announced on the Division's website (www.njdcj.org). Police agencies are encouraged to check the website for information concerning additional upcoming training and course descriptions.

TRAINING SCHEDULE – 2003

Budget Preparation for the Law Enforcement Executive

In these times of limited resources, the police executive must be as much a business person as a law enforcement officer. This program reviews the principles of the budget process and provides practical suggestions and applications on preparation of the budget. The program will also discuss monitoring the budget throughout the year and the use of emergency appropriations if the need arises.

Who should attend: Law enforcement executives and command level personnel directly responsible for developing and submitting police budgets.

Requirements: Participants should bring a copy of their department budget for use during instructional exercises.

Cost: No charge

Structuring the Law Enforcement Agency

A current and meaningful table of organization is essential for making the most efficient use of limited police resources. The program focuses on the use of patrol workload and staffing as the fundamental basis in determining a viable structure for a municipal police department. The course covers the practical application of concepts such as unity of command and span of control. The course provides a brief overview of organizational concepts, how to determine whether specialization is justified, the process for determining personnel requirements and the number of supervisors required. Attendees are instructed on how to draft a table of organization chart, as well as how to develop unit and position job descriptions.

Who should attend: Municipal law enforcement executives and command level personnel directly responsible for establishing their agency's table of organization.
